As is common to all people, especially the type we have here at Lee, several fads occurred throughout the course of the year. The most blatant examples occurred in students' (and teachers') attire. Dresses were a favorite for variety, mainly in length. And, if you couldn't decide where you wanted your hemline there were always pants to fall back upon. Beneath all this was the footwear fads, where almost anything was all right if it fit. Earth shoes started an uphill trend, what with heels finally attaining the lowest place in the shoe. Slightly higher were the infamous platforms, claimed by many to be one time that the heights of fashion hit a record low. Boots were popular for reasons no one can really comprehend. At the top, though, above almost all other fads, were the necklaces. Made of beads (or similar items) and relatively tight around the neck, many people wore them (how else could they rate a mention here?). Less obvious than clothes were the other fads. Outstanding among these was chewing tobacco, a habit that requires intestinal fortitude of the first order. T.P.ing, always a popular activity at Lee High School, reached new dimensions this year, expanding into a real art form. Collectors found a new "hot" item — pet rocks, which could be found in all sizes and shapes.

This year's really big number was the mood ring, which took Lee by storm. With it, however, Lee witnessed the rise of a new generation of psychiatrists, easy psycho-analyzing each others moods. Of course these are only the bigger and better (?) fads, there were many other-s.

THE YEAR...

Dear Seniors,

1976 - Bicentennial Year -

Your year - You will leave with many hopes -

Some regrets -

To grow is to leave behind what is outgrown -

So go - and grow -

Be all you can be -

Whatever you do -

Wherever you are -

1976 Make of this year

NOT "The World! It is a

Wilderness" - BUT

"O brave new world,

That has such people in it!"

Dear Yearbook,

I remember it well... a 2nd period which was too cold... a 3rd
period which was too late... a 4th period
which was too long,
too hungry, too "Senior",
too basketball + baseball,
too... a 5th period
which was too egg-y... a 6th period which was too LOUD... a senior class + "ski club"
who put me (J.P. + S.W.)
+ kept me (C.T. + R.J.)
on skis... a generous,
chauvinistic, but not
'skillful' faculty group
(J.B., H.B., G.P., S.K., T.M. et al.)
... Lancer Tri-Hi-ty...

Dear Seniors,

As the class of 1976 graduates from Lee High School, I would like to leave you with one thought: the subject of a sentence is never found in a prepositional phrase.

Remember S DO I DO PU OP APP!

M.C. Hecklinger

This has been an outstanding year for the Lancers! All of us are proud of the faculty and student body for their outstanding accomplishments during this historic year. A real pleasure to me to be associated with a school as fine as Lee.
No question that Lee has proven it is the best school in the County. Best Wishes. William E. Johnson

HUNTER BENEDICT

To Lee High Students,

This is my 4th
year at Lee High School, serving as a
Physical Education
Teacher and Varsity Basketball Coach. It has been one of the most enjoyable
years of my career,
both in teaching and coaching. It has been a year which I will remember
my students for a long time, and for the members of the 1975-76 Varsity Basketball Team; I shall remember them
forever. Roseane B. Dean

To the 'class of '76,

June, 1976

I hope that your senior year has been one that you will long remember - the ski trip, the trip to Charlotteville for the State basketball game, dances, spaghetti dinner, sports clubs, involvement in school and community activities, and academic studies. You have been an outstanding class which I will long remember. Good luck in all that you do. J. Wright

DEAR FRIENDS:

JUNE 1976

THIS YEAR IS COMPARABLE TO 1776. OUR MOTIVATION HAS BEEN SIMILAR TO THAT OF OUR FOUNDING FATHERS. WE HAVE BEEN LOOKED UPON BY FAIRLY AS UNDERDOGS. OUR STUDENT BODY IS COMPRISED OF MANY NATIONALITIES, DIFFERING RELIGIOUS BACKGROUNDS AND BELIEFS. YET IN THIS BICENTENIAL YEAR, WE HAVE PUT IT ALL TOGETHER. ACADEMICALLY, ATHLETICALLY, YOU NAME IT. THIS TRULY HAS BEEN THE YEAR OF THE LANCERS.

Hey, who spit on the ball?

The Fighting Lancers football team successfully defended their Gunston District crown in 1975 by storming home with six straight wins to end the season with a 7-2-1 record. The Seniors of '76 helped to record a regular season record of 16-2-2 in their two years of Varsity competition. Plagued by injuries and an inexperienced defense the Lancers record stood at 1-2-1 after the first four games. However, led by co-captains Dayle Tate, John Caussin, and Gary Weaver, as well as a great group of Seniors, and with improved health on defense and better consistency on offense, the Lancers soundly defeated their last six opponents by scoring 166 points and giving up only 28. Lee became the highest scoring team in Northern Virginia with 235 points in 10 games.

Many team and individual honors were accorded the team and it was widely felt by the news media as well as opposing coaches and teams that Lee was probably the best football team in the region by the seasons end.

The Lancer fans can look forward to another banner year in 1976 with 9 starters coming back on defense and a slew of running backs also returning. The 1976 Lancers will be captained by Brian Lenhoff, Pat Hannigan, and Mike McClellan.

Senior members receiving football scholarships are Dayle Tate to Penn. State Univ. and Gary Weaver to the Univ. of N.C.

j.v. football

The Lancer Junior Varsity football season proved to be a season of the big play. Mike Shearer filled the air with footballs in guiding the offense. Kenny Breeden, the team's MVP, was on the receiving end of most of Mike's passes (he scored 4 TD's). The defense was steadied by the stout play of middle guard Jim McGowan and backs Darrell Jones, Glenn O'Brien, and Keith Nolan.

The Lancer Freshman football season proved to be a great learning experience for the young Lancers. The first three games were heartbreaking losses, then the inexperienced team started to show some spark by winning their 4th and 6th games ending the season with a 2-4 record. Mark Diron, MVP, and Brant Edwards led in rushing while Jim Youngblood, Pete Popeck and Bruce Morten led the defense

Lee's Varsity Hockey team found the 1975 season to be mainly one of disappointment. The team, which had only three seniors, was inexperienced and young. Most of these girls will be returning and the Lancers can look forward to a seasoned team next fall. The team can be proud of a 1-3-4 '75 season. Cathy Angelino was voted MVP.

Girls' Tennis had an outstanding season, losing only four matches and those were to the top two teams in the district — Mt. Vernon and Jefferson. This team fulfilled the promise of the '74 season and Mrs. Clements is sure that next year's season will be even better, for there are so many outstanding returning girls. The MVP award went to Barbara Glakas.

Coach Jones worked the Cross Country Team hard this season, but it proved to be a discouraging season. The hope lies in the '76 team, for the Junior Varsity managed to make better showings. Outstanding team members include Stuart Copan, Mark Luhtanen, Scott Meeks, John Blatchford, Dean Bukus, Tom Winter, Jim Powell, Dave Shubatt, Chris Nyce, Fred Doane, Greg Fronczak, Mike Matson and Judd Springe.

The Lee High School Swim team got off to a slow start this season. Their record was 2-4, winning the last two meets out of six. The captains this season are Jim Charron, Mike Matson, and Dana Shelly. The outstanding swimmers are Paula Easley in the 200 medley, 200 freestyle, and 500 freestyle, Jim Charron in 100 freestyle, and 100 breaststroke, and Terry Spence in 100 backstroke and 100 butterfly. The outstanding divers on the team are Mike Matson and Maureen Gallagher.

The district meet was also held at Jefferson High School. In meet competition, Scott Forbes took first, Jo Trayers took second and Fred Aicholtz took fourth. Many of these outstanding wrestlers will move on to Varsity next year, and Coach Varre expects them to help win another Gunston District Championship for Lee High School.

Lee's Freshman wrestling team, a group of young men willing to put in gruelling hours of work, culminated a very successful '75-'76 season with an outstanding showing at the Freshman Tournament at Jefferson High School, where Jo Orlick, Lee Shiftlet, Tony Trayers, and Jo Ragen all took first place. These boys will be a definite asset to Lee's '77 wrestling program.

The Girls Varsity Gymnastics Team, coached by Mrs. Anne Clements had a very impressive third season, making a lot of improvement and showing their best record yet. While placing third in the district competition we sent five girls to the Regional Meet. Laura Mills was voted to the all-district gymnastics team by the coaches for the uneven bars as well as winning first place honors in the district competition. Laura also earned the right to compete in the Virginia State Meet. Cathy Jellison (uneven bars), Ronnie Eggleston (vault), Wendy Crump (balance beam), and Robin Cross (balance beam and vault) were the other girls who competed in the regional competition.

In the District competition, Larry Wheeler, Gary Weaver, and John Caussin represented Lee in the shot put; Tom Winter ran the 1000 and the one Mile; John Blatchford was in the mile relay and the 600; Scott Meeks, a sophomore ran the 2 mile and mile relay, along with Paul Gaumnitz. Larry Wheeler and Gary Weaver went to state, as well as John Blatchford and Scott Meeks. Lee fans were impressed by the tenacity and endurance these young men exhibited during the '75-'76 season. Each team member represented Lee with pride and sportsmanship.

The '75-'76 Varsity Basketball team had a successful season, in spite of a sluggish beginning. The team, lead by Senior Bucky Roman, finished with a 14-6 win-loss record. Star players were Bucky Roman, high scorer and leading rebounder, and Jay Atchison, who led the team in assists this season. Other starters who helped lead the Lancers to their 14 victories this season were Ricky May, Dave Gould, Alec McCulloch, and Dayle Tate. The Lancers who scored an average of 72 points a game were coached by Roscoe Dean and managed by Royce Rollins, Harry Ponack, and Drew Barrineau. Coach Dean introduced and employed many new tactics to heighten the strong points of his highly talented squad. The development and use of these tactics helped win the Lancers their third place birth in the Gunston District, first place standing in the Gunston District Tournament and advanced to the Regional Tournament with Mount Vernon.

The team, although inexperienced and new to Lee High School, found team spirit to be a by-product of the season. The girls were lead by co-captains, Cheryl Rose and Joan Simmons. The leading scorer was Maureen Gallagher.

Lee places third in gunston

Continued work and long, vigorous practice hours helped the Girls Varsity Basketball Team to win the majority of their games in a very tough season. The girls were victorious in seven of their eleven games (losing the other five). The team was led by captains Erin Cloyd and Sally Campbell, who were two of the three Seniors on the squad. Considering how young the team was they had an outstanding season placing third in the Gunston District. The Lancers have high hopes set on a winning season next year when the team will be a little older and have a little more experience.

With four lettermen back from last year, this year's team had an excellent chance for the Gunston District title. The captain of the '76 team is a veteran, Bruce Pearce. With the constant challenge of competition, the team's outstanding players developed even further as the season progressed, with Bruce Pearce, Jim Dunn, Linus Freeman, Joe Rizzo, Chuck McCullough, and Paul Breidenbach among the most outstanding.

Great Kick Buddy

the game!!

The Robert E. Lee Soccer team for 1976 was a relatively young team, very few of the 1975 team were underclassmen. This year's team, however, was composed of eight seniors, four juniors, seven sophomores and four freshmen. The team was enthusiastic and spirited, each member equipped with the drive and great desire to win. Aside from these qualities, they possessed excellent basic skills. Despite early need to develop team unity, this season was to be a rewarding one, according to their new coach, Mr. Collins. The schedule was formidable, opponents strong; yet, the Lee Soccer team made a good showing.

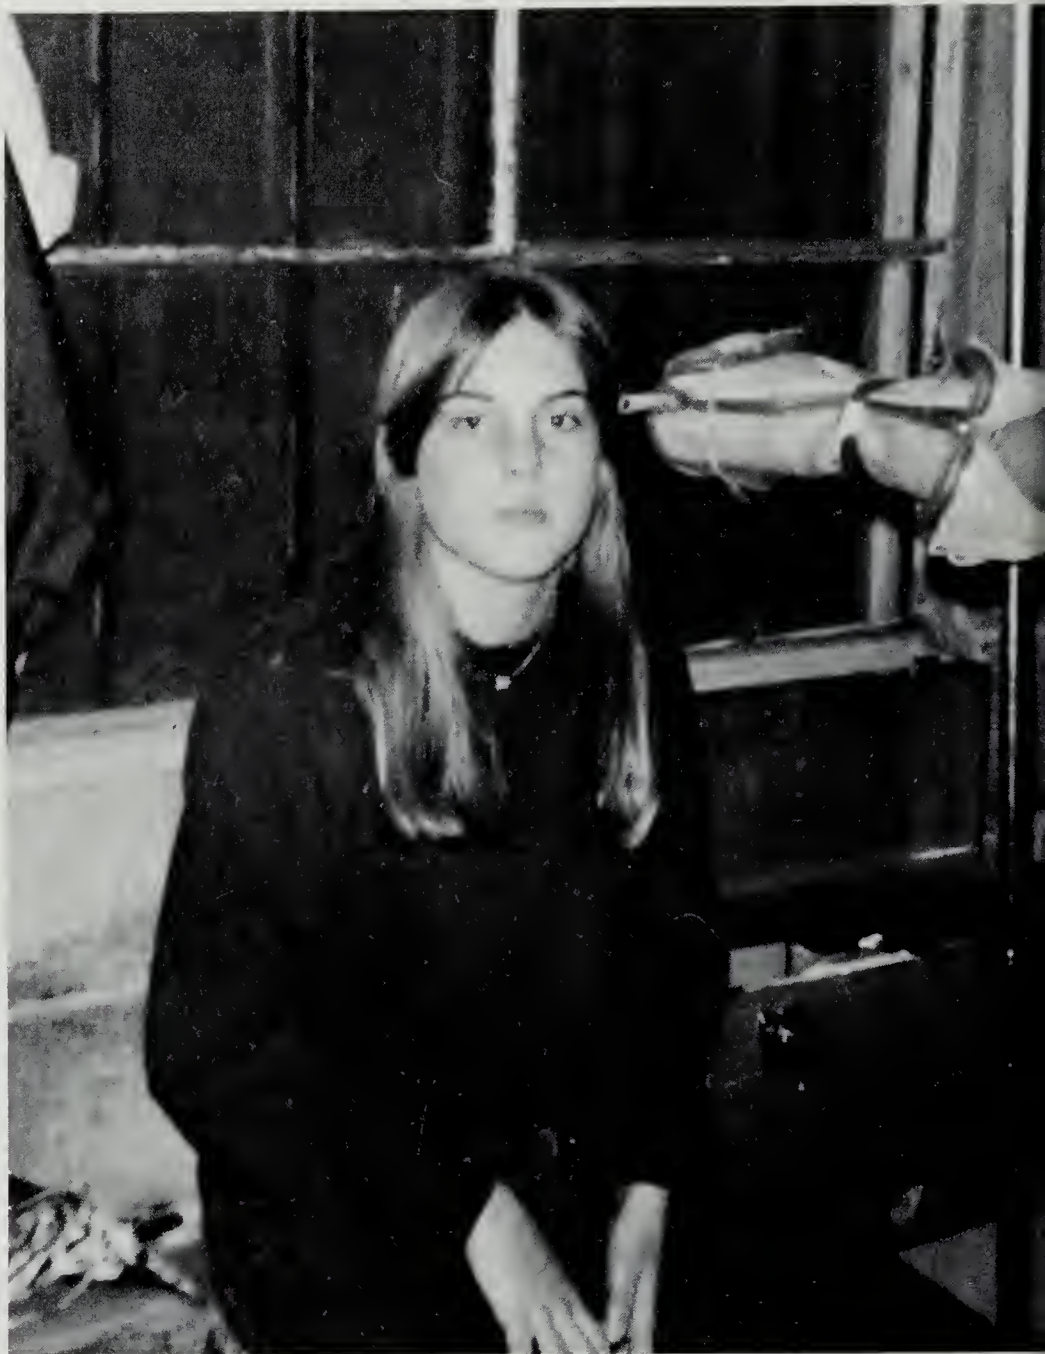

The team discusses the strategy for their first season game against W.S.

rifle team

The Lancer '76 Rifle Team had a record breaking season. This group of veterans posted all-time Lee records for individual and team scores. Cathy Thomas, Alan Cohen, Clay Parrish, Gordn Dexter, and Wayne Hirst fired a record score of 1125 against Marshall High School. Cathy Thomas, Lee's individual champion and Virginia Girl Champion, established an all-time individual record score of 290. The four seniors were joined by some excellent new shooters: Wayne Hirst, Karen Long, Sue Olsen, and Sue Dake. These newcomers will form the nucleus for next year's team. The team has been coached by Col. Varnell and Col. Thomas, who have been willing to give their time an expertise to make this team among Lee's finest.

The Junior Varsity Baseball Team of 1976 was hard pressed to repeat the record of last years Gunston District Junior Varsity championship club. All of last years team members have moved up to the Varsity and this years team includes two Juniors, nine Sophomores, and seven Freshmen. Several players have shown considerable talent during the pre-season drills.

The 1976 season saw many new faces on the Lancer varsity. With the loss of 11 lettermen from the 1975 District Championship squad, Coach Bradley had several slots to fill. Although the squad shaped up as young and untested in varsity competition, there were four returning lettermen who offered a solid nucleus. Andy Giordano and Dayle Tate headed up the mound staff, while Larry Elam and John Flaherty anchored the infield at third and first. 6'6" Alec McCulloch loomed to be a tough right hander to handle opposing batsmen while Billy Cushman, Mike Fox, and Rich Flaherty helped on the mound when needed. Bill Renner and Mike Greene handled the pitchers, while Bill Duffy, Jim Pfister and Rusty Hodges roamed the outfield. Mike Dishner, Jimmy Coe, Joe Buonviri, and Eddie Blaine Morton vied for infield. The outlook was good that the Lancers would be in contention to repeat as District champs and hopefully make a clean sweep in football, basketball and baseball for the 75-76 school year.

Home it, John!

Oh, I think I broke a nail.

Is it good Mr. Bradley?

"Old Slugger" (Larry Elam).

This years golf team anticipated a very successful season. Although three returning golfers, Joe Cook, Steve Bass and Dan Hogan, had injuries just prior to the start of the season, they did improve their games as the season progressed. With the changing of the members of the Gunston District Lee was a strong contender for the District Title. Lee's golf team was lead by Senior Joe Cook who has been Lee's most valuable player for the past three years, and last year's number one golfer is the District Tournament. Other returning golfers were Senior Ray Palmer, Juniors: steve Bass and Dan Hogan. New members of this years golf team were Senior Walter Schrupp, Junior Bob Agee and Matt Blackington, Sophomore Karen Kirby and Ed Palmer and Freshman Jeff Walter.

Boy did you see that ball fly?

Joe Cook puts a lot of concentration into his game.

This year's track and field team was stronger than last year especially in the field events. Seniors Gary Weaver and Larry Wheeler made Lee the only school in Virginia to have two 60 foot plus shot putters. Bucky Roman, also a Senior, was capable of high jumping 7 feet. The horizontal jumps were ably manned by Sean McLearn, while Brantly Buerger continued his quest for a 13 foot pole vault. The runners were both experienced and capable.

CLASSES

CLASS OF 77

President, Paula Easley

Senators, Sharon Pietzyk and Genie Simons

Well, the class of '77 did it again this year they actually moved further ahead in high school. Starting as stumbling Freshmen, then moving on through stumbling Sophomores, they went through their Junior year like nothing else (whether that's good or bad is for you to decide.) With some encouragement, some money was raised, and some was spent on that strange torture called the Junior Prom. The class officers officed, the sponsors sponsed, and everything worked out in the end. So, with a bit of pride, they can now be welcomed to the Senior class.

Well, the class of '78, now old hands at high school life settled down to the everyday routine. Though the Sophomores didn't have any special event to look forward to this year, the class engaged in many money-making projects, such as dances, car washes and other such things to remove itself from the ranks of non-profit organizations. Now the class will look forward to next year and the Junior Prom.

President, Chris Cooke

Vice President, Kellie LaTorraca

The class of '79 arrived this year amid lots of confusion. At first the Frosh couldn't seem to find their place in things (Freshmen in the Senior section at the first pep rally), but they finally learned enough to get around the school. The class officers managed to coordinate all the usual money-raising activities, mainly dances and bake sales. The class sponsors did their share of the work, giving advice and help where needed. As a result, the class of '79 compiled a pretty good record for their Frosh year.

LEARNING

ADMINISTRATION

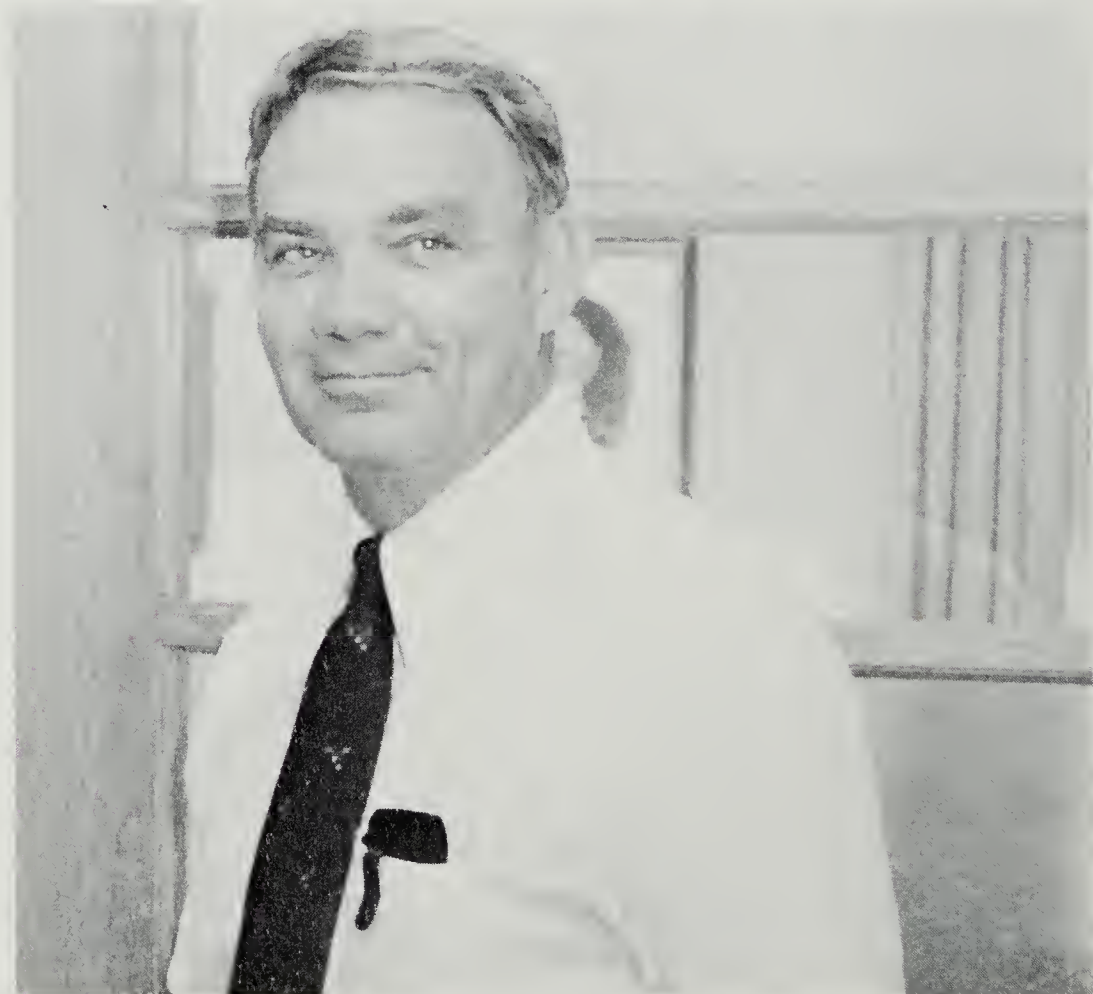

Lee High School has a strong sense of pride — pride in the accomplishments of our students, scholastic, athletic, and creative. This feeling of identity is initiated and fostered by the administrative staff. These men are our leaders — guiding, helping coordinating, disciplining, encouraging. They have been teachers, experiencing the conflicts and rewards of the classroom. They have never forgotten that a school is its people, its students, its teachers, its supportive staff. Making all work smoothly together is their aim.

GUIDANCE

A student with a problem ultimately ends up in our Guidance Department, where there is always a smiling face and a listening ear to help him through those "trying times." Mrs. Jennings set up a Guidance newsletter this year to inform Juniors and Seniors of possible scholarships and special programs. Helping underclassmen choose courses for the upcoming year and guiding seniors through the maze of college applications are only two examples where we must give our Guidance Department the "Last Hurrah."

SOCIAL STUDIES

Since the thematic program has been stopped in the Social Studies Department, teachers have been creatively trying to avoid the standard, old-fashioned style of teaching. Mrs. Ehlman's classes held mock trials while other government teachers brought election candidates into the school to inform students on campaign issues. Modern History, taught by Mrs. Corliss, allows students to discover a different dimension of history. Social Studies teachers have provided a tremendous amount of variety for the students.

The accent is on understanding in our Foreign Language department. ENGLISH

The English Department went back to the basics of readin' and writin' this year following the discontinuation of the thematic program. Grammar skills were highly stressed and teachers were rewarded when their students learned to recognize parts of sentences which last year they never even knew existed. Details such as past perfect participles and demonstrative pronouns suddenly became easy to deal with. Many teachers instructed their students on the fine art of detecting motifs, then themes and satirical commentaries by reading various novels and plays. With backbreaking labor by students, English teachers were determined to eradicate the evils of illiteracy.

Physical education? It means struggling to do at least average on the physical fitness tests and studying to learn the rules of "the game". It means striving for seven out of ten baskets and reading the drivers' education books. It means pulled muscles and trampoline. Thursday, November 3, kicked off the weekend with the traditional bonfire, courtesy of Lancer Hi-Y, followed by the annual Follies Competition. Participating groups built their skits around "historical" events. Before a packed audience five courageous service clubs performed their antics. Homecoming is the time of year when the alumni return home from college to be looked over by their previous colleagues and admired. This single week is made special by the ceremonies attached to it. The decorating of the halls, the spirit of the students, the making of the class floats, the Bonfire, the Follies, and the Powder Puff football game all were events which highlighted the week. The end of the first grading period made Homecoming week short this year, depriving us of a much anticipated pep rally.

Charlene Abene was named Maid of Honor at halftime during the game, and Kathy Wheeler was crowned Homecoming Queen.

The football game was won by the Lancers when we played the Hayfield Hawks. The next night, amid dark lights and everyone pointing at a girl who looked like Tom Cambern, the Homecoming Dance came off beautifully and was meaningful to the Seniors, alumni and all involved.

The Bonfire comes off successfully.

The It's Academic team scored a respectable second in their only competition. In a meet against teams from Woodward and George Mason high schools. Lee scored 390 points, a winning score in almost any competition, but Woodward won with an all but impossible 625 points. Team members are Ben Mays, Paul Robertson, and Tom Winter, with Jeff Hardin, Jeff Lucas, and Tim Snyder serving as alternates.

ENGLAND

Every year, three Juniors from this school go forth into the world. Actually, they get chosen to visit jolly olde England for a couple of weeks, nominally to learn what it's like to live in another country. Actually, the true purpose (kept as one of the deepest and darkest of secrets, second only to the little known fact that we lost the Revolutionary War) is to have fun (a no-no in school-sponsored activities). Amazingly enough, most people seem to agree that this goal is achieved most of the time. So, here we see the three lucky ones who went this year.

GERMANY

The German classes, with the help of the American Institute for Foreign Study, arranged a trip to Germany. Although this trip was open to all German classes only two people signed up. These people, Tom Riggie and Greg Brown along with Mrs. Cavich, flew from New York to Muchen, to Salyburg, Austria where they visited Schonbrun and it's many castles. Our three travelers then toured the Alps after which they went to Spain where they visited the famous Spanish Riding School and saw the elegant and famed white Lippizan Stallions. Their last stop was to Vienna and a Viense opera, then finally back to New York and home again. Bill Murphy shouldn't be in this picture because, traveller that he is, he decided to go to England instead.

SWEETHEART DANCE

Once more this year the Civettes held a Sweetheart Dance. As is traditional, the dance was held on February 14, alias Saint Valentine's Day. The cafeteria was transformed from it's ordinarily mundane self to an attractive and cheerful dance hall for the sake of the occasion, with hearts, flowers and love all present in abundance. Music to dance with was provided by a popular local band of musicians called "Prelude". A Sweetheart Court was chosen, with Andrea Martin and Kevin Schriener ruling as the Sweetheart Couple this year.

They've been going together for 8 months and are going to get married real soon. When asked what happened on their first date, Tammy stood up and patted her bulging stomach. The judges must have had a hard time trying to decide on a Mr. Lancer with the fierce competition represented by "The Fronz", Greg Fronczak; "Mr. Hands Off", Tom Bushey; "Mr. Ocean Eyes", Jess Dishner; "Mr. Crystalize", Tom Zeberlein; and "Mr. Fly Me", Glenn Masters. "Mr. Ocean Eyes", Jess Dishner, was 1st runner-up to Glenn Masters, "Mr. Fly Me", the 1976 Mr. Lancer. Darrill Jones earned "Best Legs" and Rick Barnett used his seductive charm to win "Mr. Sex Appeal" and "Mr. Congeniality". When everyone came back to reality and realized how the time had flown (with "Mr. Fly Me") they decided to leave.

Lee Lancers Clinch District Basketball Title

Coach Dean gives Lancer players a pep talk before the final game.

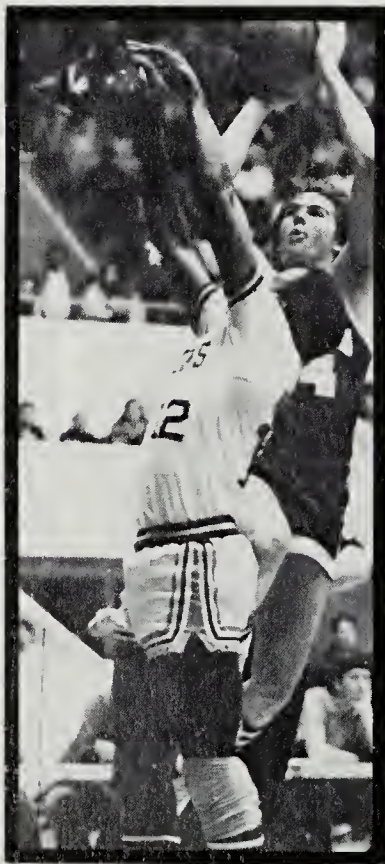

Lee Wins First Regional Game

First round action in the regional basketball tournament Monday saw the Lee Lancers continue the momentum of their two wins over Mount Vernon on the court against the Herndon Hornets, and emerge with an 80-65 victory.

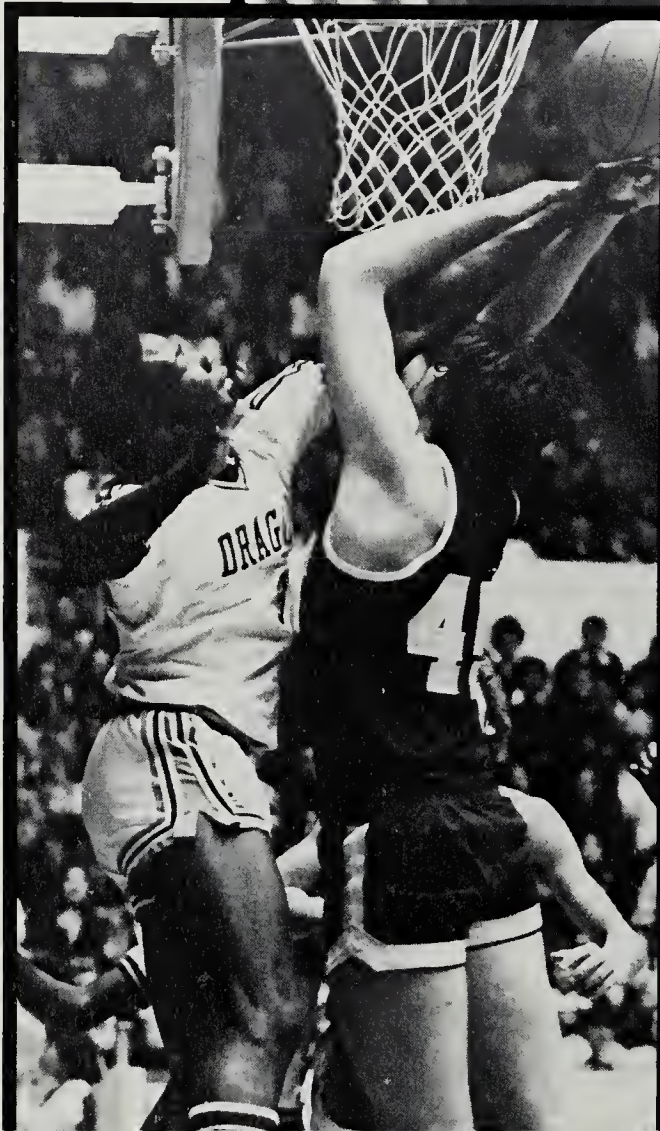

Turnovers by the Hornets and the continued strong offensive play of the Lancers made the game fairly one-sided. The Lancers led the entire game. At the end of the first quarter Lee possessed an 18-12 advantage, and pulled away to a 37-32 point lead at the half.

The third quarter was Lee's best. The Lancers tallied 29 points as opposed to 16 for the Hornets. It was 66-48 in favor of Lee going into the fourth quarter.

Bucky Roman was high scorer for Lee with 30 points. Rick May chipped in 15 and Dayle Tate scored 14. Alec McCulloch continued to do his part for Lee under the boards by pulling in 14 rebounds. The Lancers' biggest contest will come if they reach the finals tomorrow, where they will face either Robinson or Mount Vernon.

One of the many tense moments seen down at University Hall.

by David Pasztor

A tired Lancer basketball team was handed its seventh defeat of the season last Saturday as Lee fell to the Maggie Walker Green Dragons, 82-68, in the Virginia AAA state finals in Charlottesville. Unlike many of Lee's earlier defeats which were up for grabs to the final buzzer, the game against the Green Dragons was a runaway.

Poor shooting cost Lee the championship. The Lancers shot only 36 percent compared to 54 percent for Maggie Walker. While Lee was missing shots it had been making all year, the Green Dragons were scoring on impressive fast breaks and 30-foot jump shots by Clyde Austin.

The Green Dragons' excellent ball handling and shooting kept them out of reach of the Lancers most of the game.

Lee had to play eight games in three weeks to qualify for the finals. Each one of those games had to be won and each one of them was hard. Coach Roscoe Dean said, "The last four weeks we had been getting better and better, and we peaked at the right time. Eight straight pressure games are bound to get to you and we were tired. We played like a tired ball club, especially the first half."

"Sure it would have been nice to win it, but I can't say enough about the kids and the way they've played all season. I was worried at the beginning of the season, but as the tournaments came around I thought we had a shot," Dean concluded.

The Green Dragons only

out-rebounded the Lancers, 47-44 as play under the boards was fairly well balanced. Maggie Walker had no players under six feet and no starters under 6 feet 2 inches. Despite the height differences Alec McCulloch and Bucky Roman were able to hold their own for the Lancers' rebounding. But shooting was a different story.

Roman, Lee's leading scorer throughout the season, scored only five points in the first half, all of them in the first quarter. He finished the game with 23 points as the Lancers pulled back together in the second quarter. Dayle Tate hit only two of 13 shots in the first half and McCulloch hit only three of 11.

The first quarter saw the Green Dragons gradually pull away from Lee. The score went neck-in-neck at first, but the Lancers weren't able to control the pace of the game the way Dean would have liked. Maggie Walker built up a six point lead and held it for the last few minutes of the quarter. Lee was down, 20-13, going into the second period.

The second quarter was sheer disaster for the Lancers. They got burned on a few fast breaks and when they kept the Green Dragons outside, Clyde Austin would inevitably score on a long jump shot. Roman didn't hit any for Lee, and 5-foot 11-inch Rick May picked up some of the offensive slack for the Lancers, scoring 13 points in the first half. May finished the game as second high scorer for Lee with 19.

Lee fell farther and farther behind, as Maggie Walker led by eight, then 14, and finally by 19 at the end of the first half for a 50-31 score. In the second half of the game, the Lancers were able to pull back together, but not enough to win. Lee outscored the Green Dragons in the second half, 37-32.

Lee was behind for most of the third quarter by 17 points. Roman started to hit and the rest of the team was moving faster on the See LANCERS Page 14

Good Luck In Charlottesville!

SOCK HOPS

Sock-Hops, conglomerations of naked feet pounding the floor to a steady beat. Tests of courage in the face of embarrassment. Nowhere else is one's ego tested to as great an extent as at a sock-hop. If you don't believe in yourself, you never enjoy going to one, for you miss the toal purpose of a sock-hop: to establish the order of egos. The first couple to go out and dance on an empty floor are at the top. The rest of us, who wait until we can dance in relative anonymity, are near the bottom. Those who never venture forth, well, we won't say where they are. Sock-hops are also one of the greatest examples of learning by doing: once you are out there, there's no turning back, so if you don't know how to dance you learn fast. Actually, though, it must be all for the best, otherwise people wouldn't keep going back for more.

Richard and Carol make a little extra on the side.

Two friendly faces welcome you to the RE LEE SOC-HOP.

Jeff Please . . .

One of the thrills of being a Freshman.

tiny tots

Mr. Rittman introduces the Big Bird to the tiny tots.

What do you call it when you see a Senior guy wearing orange tights? A Tiny Tots Concert, with the Big Bird in attendance, trying not to flip out in front of hundreds of pre-schoolers. Every year, the Music Dept. gets together to entertain hundreds of elementary school students, not to mention entertaining themselves. There's the Magic Music Man, providing music by popular request to a packed auditorium. Big Bird is also there, causing trouble and distracting the kids, who naturally love every minute of it, and there's the one presence hardest to see but easiest to sense: Fun, and that's what it's really all about.

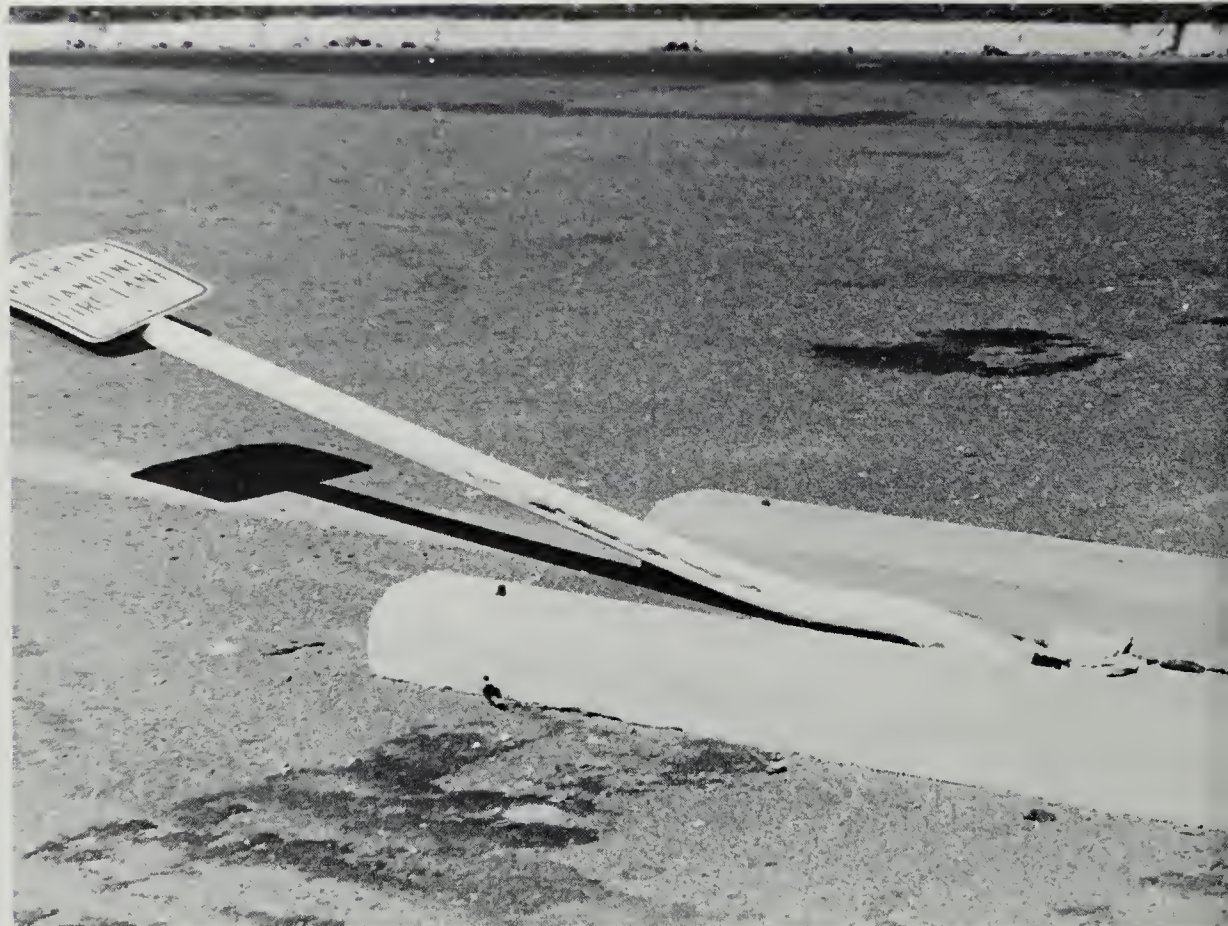

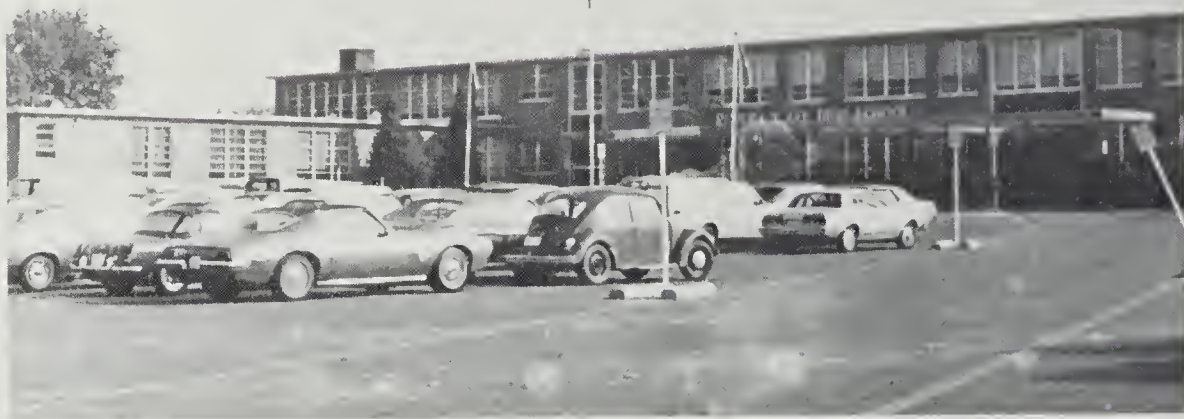

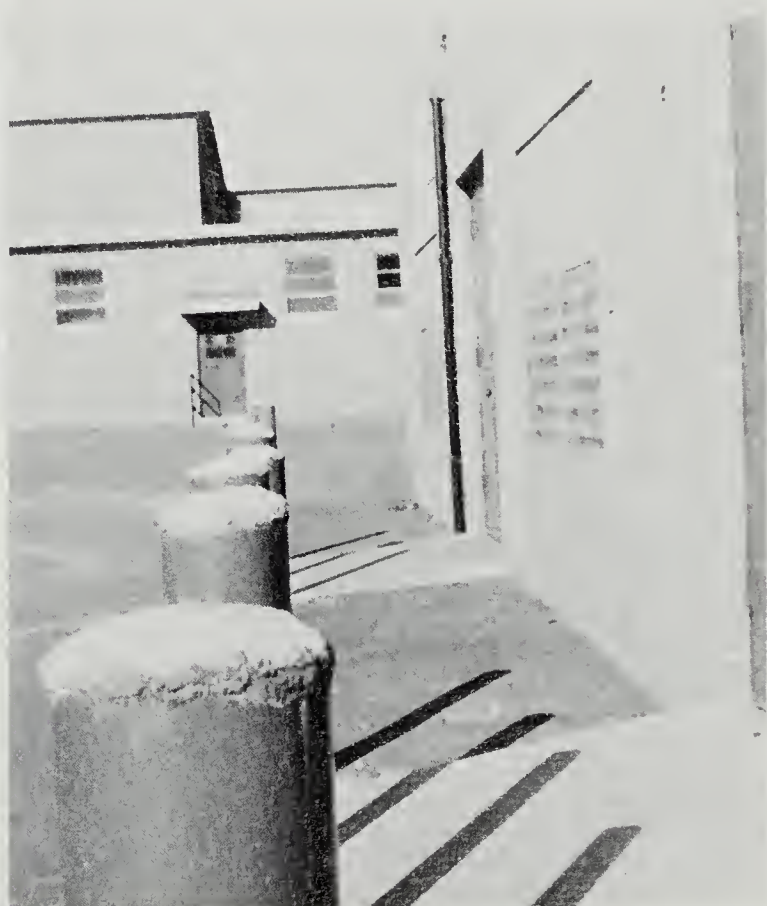

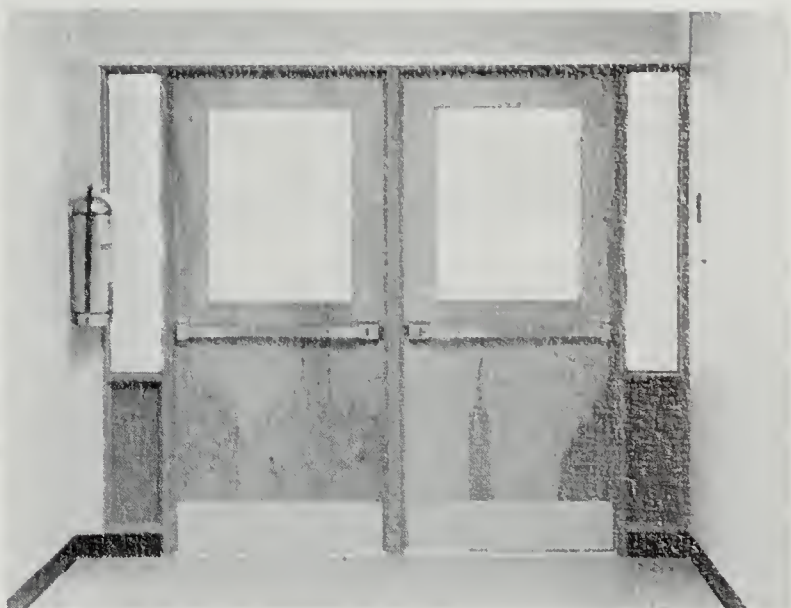

The Majorettes dance and twirl their batons for the tiny tots.

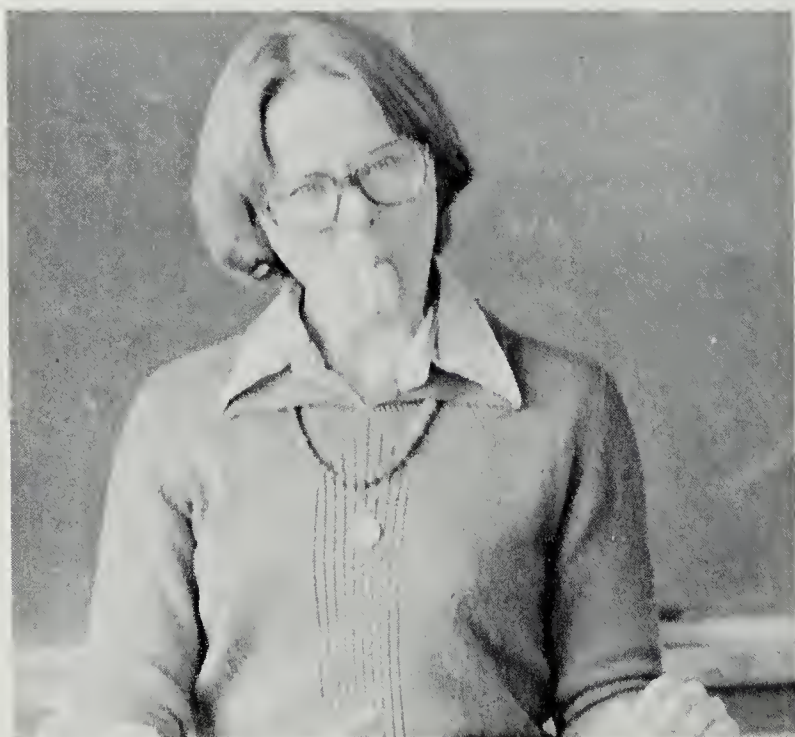

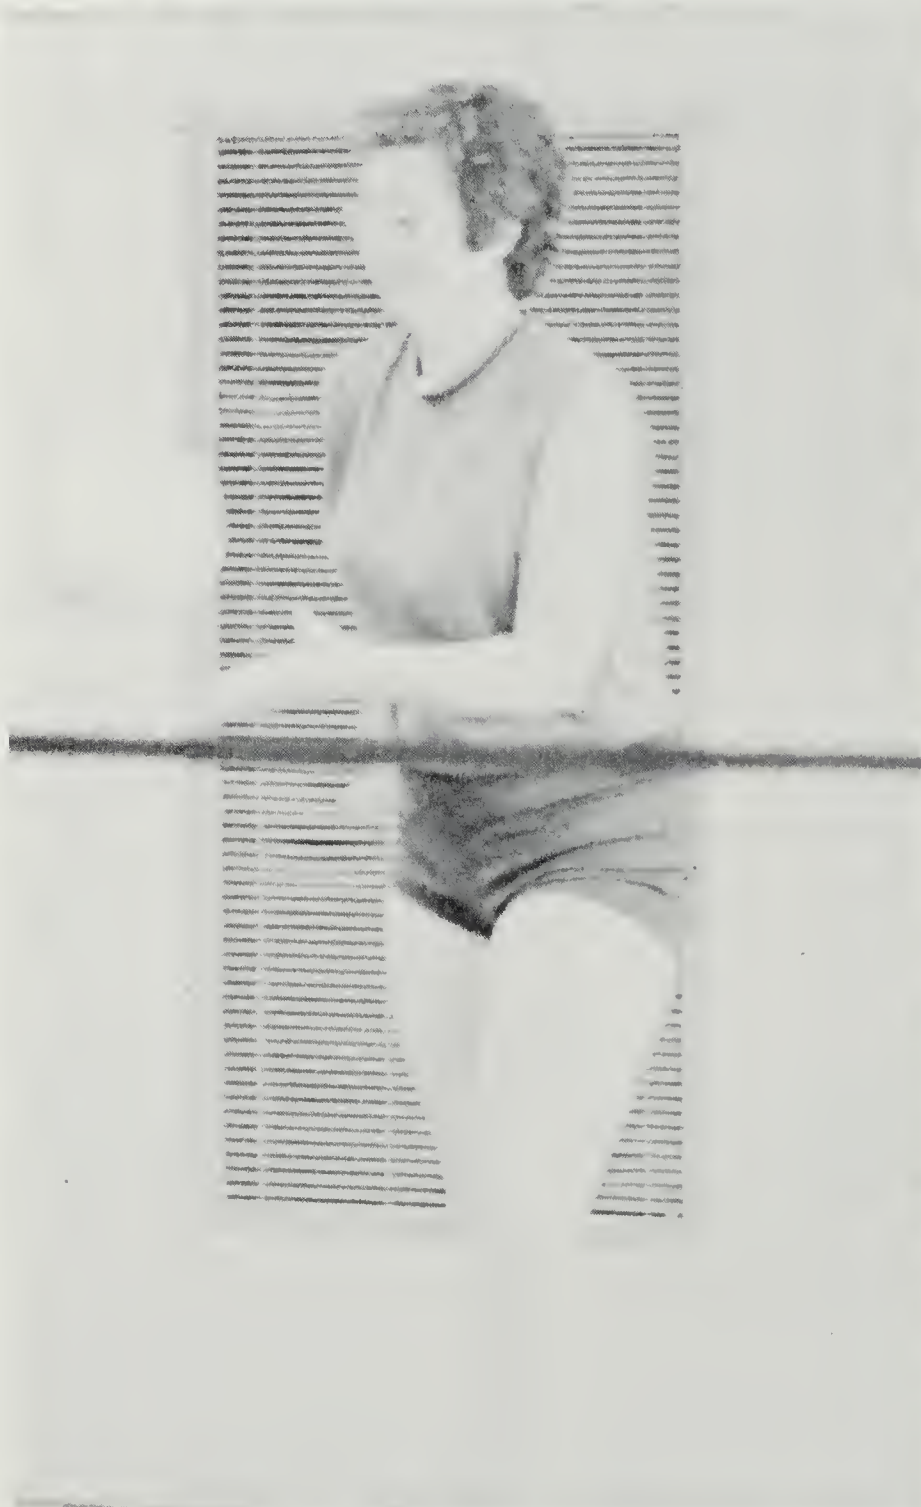

The tiny tots curiously watch the band perform.

OUR SCHOOL

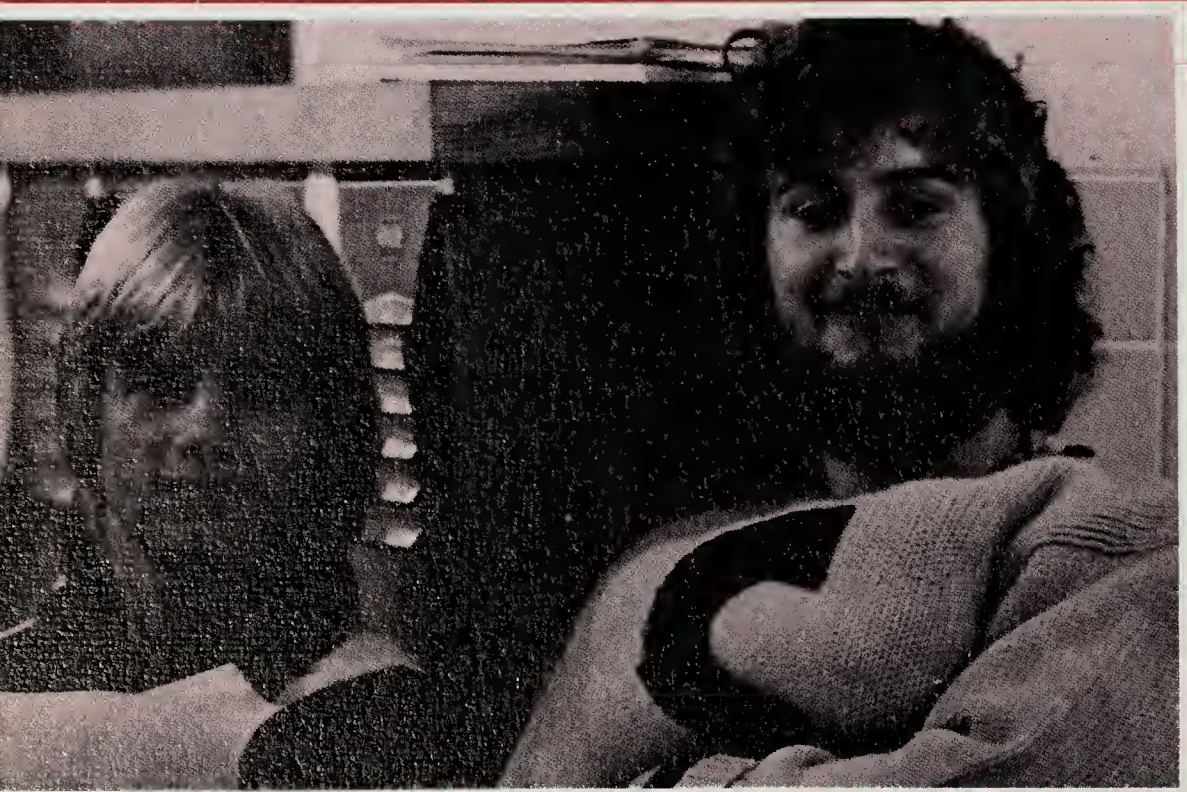

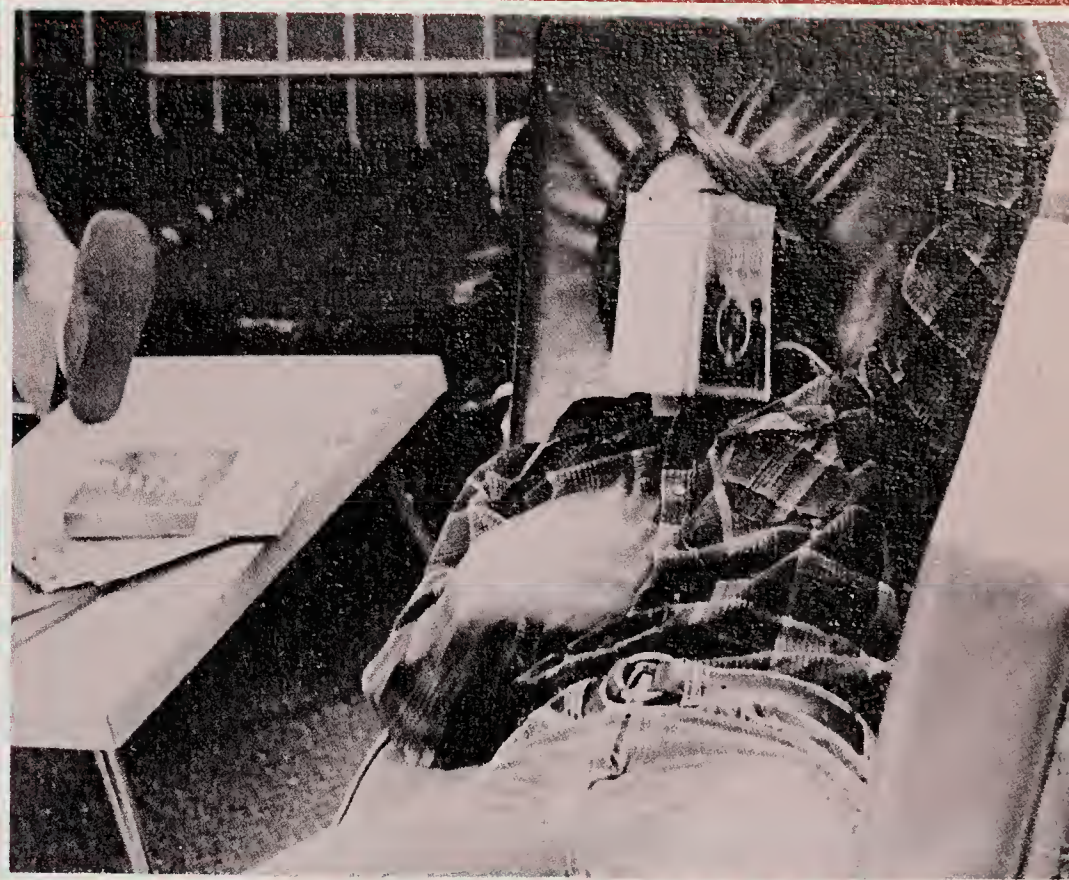

AND US...

SENIORS

SPiRiT OF 76

From the time we entered Lee High School as Freshman, the class of '76 has possessed a unique characteristic — UNITY. We have worked together producing great results. Now that we are Seniors preparing for graduation, our class has lost none of it's magic ingredient — UNITY. Our Senior class will go down in high school history as a warm, friendly and willing to work group of students. There has never been a class like the class of '76, and it will be a long while before another class will equal the special "togetherness" our Senior class has shared.

ODDITIES OF THE END

A student's last year of high school is widely believed to be different from all other years. For once, something "everybody knows" is right. That nine-month period when a student finds himself called, among other things, a "Senior" is vastly different from other school years.

Before school even starts, a Senior must get his picture taken for his spot in the yearbook. The cost of this simple task can run from merely the sitting fee (a couple of dollars) up to the price of some deluxe picture packages (up to $70 and higher.) A Senior must then decide which of his pictures he dislikes the least. Underclassmen are lucky, for they don't have to make a decision. Seniors must also decide how many graduation announcements to buy and what style the announcements should be. To decide on the number, a Senior must be slightly clairvoyant, for he must know, within reason, how many people he will know at the year's end, and how many of those people he'll want to see him graduate. The corollary of this is that he must decide whom he doesn't want to come.

While we're discussing graduation, we should also mention caps and gowns. A Senior must interrupt his usually busy (or more likely, not so busy) schedule in order to be fitted for his cap and gown. Then towards the year's end, all the Seniors must rehearse for their baccalaureate and graduation. Naturally, all Seniors really enjoy tromping out onto the football field while the band plays in the background. A close-but-no-cigar award for popular pastimes goes to thinking of some manner in which to break up the monotony of the graduation exercise.

THE END RESULT

A Senior must make sure that he has taken his SAT's in time for the colleges to get them, and that his scores are good enough to get into the college of his choice. Then he must get and fill out an application to the college, plus a few he would like to go to if he doesn't make his favorite. At this point, most Seniors are forced into a "wait and see" attitude, until an acceptance or two arrives. After being accepted, the Senior seems to be in a totally different world, that of a relaxed, easy-going, slumping student. But that is another story entirely.

MAKING UP FOR LOST TIME

At the beginning of their Senior year, most students suddenly realize that they have fewer than 36 weeks of high school left. This fact by itself means nothing, but combined with all the things that students put off until later, it gains importance. So Seniors spend most of their last year making up for lost time.

Some Seniors try to join as many clubs as possible. There are two reasons for this. First, they had wanted to join earlier, but never found the time (as if they have it now). Second, they know that it will look good on their college applications if they have lots of activities listed. Thus, many clubs get Seniors as new members for the first half of the year.

On the more mercenary side of things, Seniors also try to get jobs to pay for all the things they do. Lack of money cuts into activity faster than anything else, since everything costs either money or more money. Part-time jobs thus are almost a prerequisite of being a Senior.

Even more mundane than a job, because it lacks the profit motive, is the scholarly aspect of a Senior year. All Seniors, except that elite with straight A's, realize that their grades could stand improvement if they want to attend college. Thus, in the first quarter there is a massive, last-ditch effort before that vile, foul slayer of good grades, Senior Slump, sets in.

SENIOR SLUMP (OR FALLING BEHIND)

About midway through the Senior year, most high school students succumb to a disease commonly referred to as "Senior Slump." This unusual disease is restricted to Seniors. There are several warning signs before the disease strikes.

The first, and most blatant, warning comes in the mail. It is called an acceptance to a college. When a Senior gets an acceptance from the college he wants to attend, you can almost hear his grades drop, for most Seniors are extremely lazy in attitude, and desire only to put out effort adequate for the task at hand (i.e., getting grades good enough to be accepted into a college).

Another clue, vastly more subtle, is the expenditure of an inordinate amount of work by a Senior to get good grades. This is an indication that a Senior is trying to bring up his G.P.A., and make people in Admissions offices across the country think he has started maturing into a serious student. With many Seniors the noticeable effect this has is almost nil, since very few will start cutting into their social life that much just for better grades.

Senior Slump, foul dropper of grades, cause of laziness, creator of apathy, can have many effects, mainly on parents. The parents, when they see their former straight A son or daughter start to get D's and C's, have been known to start acting strangely. Stunned silence is a classic response. Apoplexy is not unknown, violent anger has become popular in recent years, as well as collecting car keys. Long term (9 weeks) effects on the parents include exercise of the index finger on the on-off switch of the T.V. and radio, checking homework, and other such nasty practices.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES??

Any Senior will be able to tell you that Seniors deserve all the privileges they get, and then some. However, many Seniors don't know what privileges they used to have, or what they may lose to jealousy from the underclassmen.

For example, let's examine one of the highlights of a school day, namely lunch. How many people are aware of the fact that there used to be a Senior table? It was right in the middle, and any underclassman caught sitting there would be brusquely removed. All of you are aware of Senior cuts in line, but, when the time comes that one or two Seniors try to cut in (as is their right), underclassmen will start to forget their proper place in the order of things and actually protest! Gone are the days when underclassmen properly accepted their inferiority to Seniors, and the lack of respect they give Seniors is evident.

What happened to Seniors being first to go to a pep rally (and being first to leave)? Now the Seniors, superior as they are, are being forced to come and go to these events along with the other classes, who are too foolish to realize how inferior they really are and how much admiration they should give the Seniors. The administration should right things immediately and apologize to the Senior Class for forcing them to be so degraded for the Seniors have endured too much. Underclassmen must learn their place. The present trend against Seniors must be reversed before Seniors lose their sense of identity and class pride.

seniors' "day-out"

This year on October 18 the annual Senior trip took place. But something was different, instead of going to the traditional football game at Annapolis the Seniors went to Kings Dominion. The day started out rainy as the Seniors began their venture to Kings Dominion but the skies soon cleared as the radiant Seniors arrived. Seniors enjoyed such amusements as the giant roller coaster, bumper cars and various side shows. As the day came to an end the tired Seniors were ready to return home in anticipation of food and rest.

How would you like to go for a swim?

Is it true that two heads are better than one?

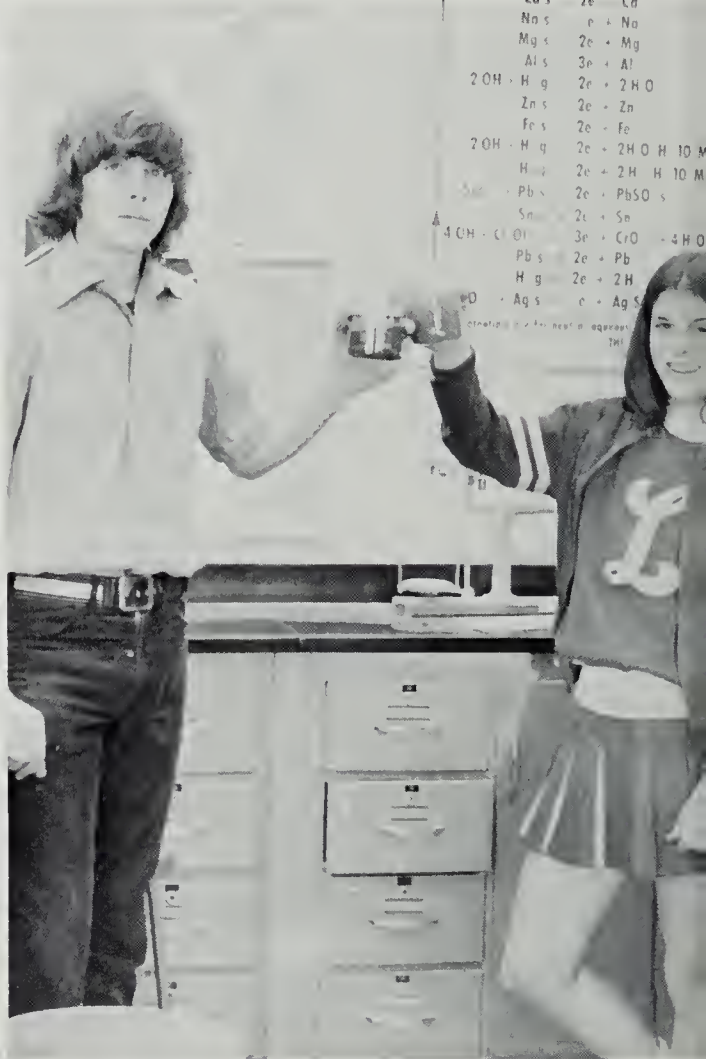

Ahhh, you're just saying that.

Seniors have, over the years, evolved many traditions to separate them from the common, run-of-the-mill underclassmen. One of those traditions is called Senior Dress-up Day, a day when Seniors dress like themselves while the underclassmen try to appear normal. Some Seniors even try to stand out among their peers as the strangest. There were Cats in the Hat, pumpkins, preachers, Sparkys, nuts in general, and even a "fat," dumb beggar who made a few dollars. On second thought, maybe she wasn't so dumb, but enough of this. Bring on the pictures.

Spaghetti Dinner

Well, this year's Senior Class did it, too. Every Senior Class sponsors a Spaghetti Dinner as a money-maker. This year, two different (and how!) groups entertained the diners, the Stage Band (seriously pleasant) and the Pointer Sisters (Cathy, Ann, Erin, and Ruane, all chastic and funny, but pointless). The only surprise of the evening was for the Seniors. Many people came early in the evening, and before long there was a shortage of both silverware and space. Plastic forks were brought in to ease the fork shortage and, for the first time in the history of the Spaghetti Dinner, the second half of the cafeteria was opened up for people to use. In spite of the minor troubles, though, the evening was a success and everyone went away happy.

GAPS & GOWNS

How do you spell Porolex Dojerhoufel?

This brain should fit the monster quite nicely.

Who says getting out is easy? Graduation is a long, complicated process, beginning before a Senior's year is even halfway over. One of the first steps is ordering graduation announcements. At this point, all Seniors are asked to do three things: predict how many people they want to see them shaking hands with the principal, order as appropriate number of announcements, and pay exorbitant prices for said announcements. Later on in the year, Seniors get fitted for caps and gowns. This is an especially trying experience, since unusual things are demanded of them, such secrets as how much they weigh and how tall they really are. The most interesting part of the process is measuring for caps, for here a Senior is asked to stand still while a device vaguely reminiscent of a medieval torture device is strapped around his head and tightened to a point that falls short of extreme agony. Most of the remainder of the year is spent waiting for the results of these trials and tribulations, the end.

Those are gaudy!

For this I paid $10.00?

SKI TRIP

The Class of '76 decided this winter to have a second class trip (slightly different, of course). The new trip was a ski trip to Pennsylvania, lasting a few days. Immediately after the trip was announced, the Senior Class became loaded with ski bums trying to find some way of going on the trip. With a few changes of plan concerning time (the Seniors left earlier than originally planned) and cost (it went down?!), some 80-odd Seniors went off to find out what it's like to go on a ski trip. Considering the expertise (or lack thereof) of most Seniors, casualties were relatively light, consisting mainly of bruised bottoms and egos, and everybody enjoyed themselves, on and off the slopes. In any case, Friday night many tired Seniors arrived home to tell tales of bravery and foolishness.

Can't turn back now.

A skiers paradise, Seven Springs Pennsylvania.

Hey Brenda, are you getting ready to go back up?

SNOW, SKIS, SLOPES!!

Boy, was it ever a long trip up!

It's time to call it a day.

senior administration day

It had to happen sometime, so, finally, on the eleventh morn of March, the Seniors took the teachers' places until school ended. Much to everyone's surprise, order was maintained throughout the uprising. The only casualties were some Seniors' egos, when they discovered that keeping a class peaceful and orderly is not as easy as it looks, especially when the natives ask nasty questions that their "teachers" can't answer. At times like that, many Seniors wished that they could just crawl under a rock, just to evade those smart-alecks that like to embarrass their teacher. Naturally, there were a few minor (?) incidents, such as the students in P.E. dragging their teacher (female) into the locker room (one guess). There were also all those disruptive teachers who were put in the halls to work on tests, because they were distracting the students. In spite of all this trouble, the day was declared a success and everyone left more or less smiling.

May I have the attention of the faculty, all students will now be released from class.

Well, now we know they can spell . . .

SENIOR AWARD WINNERS

This year's Senior Class was unique in many ways, not the least of which was being blessed with more than it's share of talent. For example, five Seniors earned the right to be called National Merit Scholars. Six Seniors (three of each sex) went to either Boy's or Girl's State. Two Seniors formed the basis of a winning Debate Team, and seven Seniors won awards in Model United Nations. Many, many more contributed to the school in other ways without winning any awards, so those you see here are only the finest who stood out from among the finest, the creme de la creme, if you will.

Girls State: Laura Cherwick, Cathy Thomas, Cathy Welch.

IN RETROSPECT

And it is with this page that we bring to a close another edition of the Shield. It is my greatest hope that in the years to come these pages will bring back many happy memories. While the road has not always been easy, the 1976 Shield covered many of the events that typified our life at Lee. I think we've been successful, but only time and you will tell.

There are many, many people I would like to thank for their help and contributions to this book. To Frau Dusilo-Cavich, thank-you for letting me out of class upteen million times; there would have been many missed deadlines otherwise. Mrs. Hecklinger, words cannot express my gratitude for your "liberal" attitude towards due dates. You saved me much mental strain. To Carol, thanks for single-handedly tackling the entire burden of classes, you did a great job, and to Becky, ". . . a great all around assistant" I'll never be able to thank-you for all those cold winter Sundays when, on your own time, you came to help. It was a lifesaver. There were others, Betty, for a great job on organiza- tions; Kathy, the same on learning, and thanks to all the other people whose time and efforts went into producing this book.

Finally, my greatest appreciation and respect go to our advisor, Mrs. Glenda Burgess, without whom the 1976 Shield wouldn't have been. Her wealth of experience, coupled with uncomplaining perseverance and everlasting understanding, pulled us thru many troubled times. While we often trapped ourselves, the hassles were always easier after talking with her. The association is one I'll never forget.

Like all good things, our thing has to end too and while we will all be traveling many different roads, I am sure we'll all have a permanent soft spot for Shield '76.
